

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

FOX, Ore., Oct. 25.—There was a quiet home wedding today at the home of Richard Gentry when his brother, Charles L. Gentry, and Miss Hazel Clark were united in marriage. Elder G. R. Eade, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated.

Mr. Gentry is a rancher of Cottonwood, Grant county, and the bride recently came to Fox from Albee in Umatilla county, where her many friends will shower the happy couple with good wishes and congratulations.

Mrs. Mary Boyden and Mrs. P. J. Herzman entertained delightfully yesterday afternoon honoring Mrs. George Hansen who, with her husband, will leave shortly for an extended eastern trip. The guests included the members of the Spizierinkton Club together with Mrs. H. J. Bean of Salem and Mrs. Terpenning.

An exceptionally interesting and well attended meeting of the three women's organizations of the Church of the Redeemer was held yesterday at the Rectory. The recent Episcopalian convention in St. Louis was the subject of a very able paper by Mrs. Norborne Berkeley. Mrs. A. T. Park gave a talk on the "Armenians" and Mrs. Charles Quinney spoke of the women's united offering. A very pleasant social hour followed the program and dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. R. Alexander will entertain the members of the Current Literature tomorrow afternoon in the club room of the Library.

Miss Grace Bean of Salem, formerly a popular member of Pendleton's young set, who is spending a few days in Pendleton with her parents, Judge and Mrs. H. J. Bean, was the inspiration for a pretty little informal sewing party yesterday for which Mrs. James Johns Jr. was hostess. The guests included many former college mates of Miss Bean and were as follows: Miss Jennie Perry, Miss Eleanor Vincent, Miss Claire Raley, Miss Mildred Berkeley, Miss Edna Zimmerman, Miss Beth Smith, Mrs. Edmund Mable, Mrs. James Johns, Sr., Mrs. Shandard, Mrs. Bean, Mrs. Lester Hurst, Mrs. Merle Chessman, Mrs. Westbrooke Dickson, Mrs. Harold Young, Mrs. Clarence Ash and Mrs. Alzer Fee.

Kekuku's Hawaiian Quintet was greeted by a good audience at the high school auditorium last evening and proved an attraction well worth attending. It was one of the regular lyceum numbers and proved as popular as any that has been here this year, judging from the way the Hawaiians were encored.

S. B. Sanderson of Freewater, was here last evening.

Mrs. M. J. McCann of Helix, was a visitor in Pendleton yesterday.

Joe Wilkins, popular hotel man of Heppner, is paying Pendleton a visit.

William McCorkle, pioneer farmer of Weston mountain, is in the city today.

Francis Bebee of the Helix high school faculty is attending the institute here.

Fred C. Ayer of the University of Oregon, is registered at the Pendleton.

Lyman G. Rice arrived home last night from a hunt on the Tom Gibson place south of here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Taylor arrived home last evening from Portland where they spent a week.

Earl F. Kilpatrick of the University of Oregon extension department, is here for the teachers' institute.

Irwin G. Brooks of Athena left today for Eugene to see the Oregon-Washington football game Saturday. Mr. Brooks is a graduate of the university.

FAIR CROWD HEARS REPUBLICAN TALKER

A good crowd gathered last evening in the Oregon theater to hear Col. R. C. Washburn of Medford, who had been advertised to speak, but to whom instead was presented Arthur I. Moulton, a young attorney of Portland who had been sent to fill Col. Washburn's engagements. A band concert preceded Mr. Moulton's address, and helped attract an audience that about half filled the theater.

Mr. Moulton proved himself a good campaign talker as he told his hearers why they should vote for Hughes in preference to Wilson. He recited the history of the democratic party and declared hard times had walked hand and hand with it.

He devoted some of his time to a tribute to Judge Hughes, declaring his record as governor of New York stamped him as a statesman whose efforts were in behalf of the common people. In reply to the statements made that the money barons are supporting Hughes, he referred his audience to the support which Tammany is giving Wilson.

Mr. Moulton, in speaking of the Mexican situation, expressed a regret that a policy of strength had not been exhibited, declaring the president should have taken steps to show the Mexicans we were not to be tampered with.

Mr. Moulton was raised near Weston so is not a complete stranger here. He will speak tonight at Freewater, tomorrow night at Unamigne and Saturday night at Weston.

RICH DANISH GIRLS HERE TO STUDY SHOP

MISSSES INGER AND ELSE ILLUM

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The spirit of the Vikings is not dead. Two Danish girls have followed in the wake of their Norseman ancestors and sailed west to explore not new lands, but the American fashions and the methods of American department stores. Inger and Else Illum, who arrived on the Frederick VIII, are the daughters of a wealthy Danish merchant who owns Copenhagen's largest department store. The girls have long been interested in the business of their father's store. And now at the age when most girls are to seek out that which the aggressiveness and originality of the Americans have added to the science of running that maze of business, the modern department store.

ARCHBISHOP HANNA

ARCHBISHOP HANNA

Dr. Edward J. Hanna, archbishop of the diocese of San Francisco, was born in Rochester, N. Y., on July 21, 1860.

He entered the American college in Rome in 1879 and completed his course there in 1886. The next year he returned to America and was given a place at the Rochester Cathedral. In 1893 he was appointed to the chair of dogmatic theology at St. Bernard Seminary, just opened.

FOOD CRISIS DAILY IS BECOMING MORE GRAVE

LONDON, Nov. 2.—"The food crisis daily assumes more formidable proportions," says the Times' Petrograd correspondent. "The discussion at Wednesday's sitting of the budget committee left little doubt as to the gravity of the situation. The speakers emphasized the imperative necessity of adopting ameliorative measures on behalf of the working classes."

E. J. KLEMME GIVES FINE ENDORSEMENT TO NORMAL SCHOOL

WALLA WALLA HUNTER KILLS ELK IN OREGON

Is Arrested in Washington for Having Elk Meat in His Possession and Will Later Be Tried Here.

Dave Warren, a woodchucker living in Walla Walla, was arrested yesterday on a charge of having elk meat in his possession and will be tried Friday afternoon, says the Walla Walla Union. He is out on $25 bonds now. According to Game Warden Bevit Sanderson, of Freewater, Warren will be charged later with killing the animal in Oregon. The arrest was made yesterday by Game Warden A. Van Ausde of this county who with Sanderson tracked him from Little Meadows to near Walla Walla. They had a horseback ride of 37 miles. The track led across snow which was covered after the wagon passed by another snowfall. Van Ausde said last night that Warren finally admitted the killing and told him he had shot the animal because it had been eating his potatoes. Sanderson brought the meat to town yesterday.

POLICE INSPECTOR DEFILES STRIKERS BULLETS IN BAYONNE STRIKE

Anonymous notes threatening his life and three bullets whizzing past his head as he patrolled the strike zone in Bayonne, N. J., have not frightened Inspector Daniel Cady, of the Bayonne Police force, who is in charge of the patrolmen in the strike district.

DANIEL CADY

Cady has issued orders to his men to "shoot to kill." More than 12,000 men employed in the oil works at Bayonne are out. The strikers declare

DRUGGISTS FAVOR LAW TO PREVENT BOOZE SALES

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—Three hundred and twenty-four out of 498 members of the Washington State Pharmaceutical Association representing approximately the entire drug trade voted in favor of the state law prohibiting pharmacists from selling intoxicating liquors for any purpose whatever. A referendum vote of the members was taken by mail and the result was announced by the state secretary today.

BASEBALL COMMISSION MAY UNDERGO CHANGES

Ban Johnson in Statement Admits That There May Be Something Doing.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—President B. B. Johnson of the American League in a statement last night admitted that there "probably will be a change in the complexion of the national baseball commission."

The statement was issued after two afternoon newspapers had quoted Mr. Johnson as saying that August Herrman, chairman of the commission would be deposed. Immediate denial of the statement was made.

Yuba doubtless was a patriot, but he did not take the precaution to keep his patriotism in the pocket and it soured.
